

DIVORCE WITH A DIFFERENCE

From an Expert Who Cares

DO YOU HAVE A FAMILY DISPUTE? Are you contemplating divorce or still suffering with post-divorce disputes? Consider a consultation with Diane Danois, J.D., a Family Law Mediator and divorce coach in Parkland/Coral Springs.

When considering a divorce, couples have a large field of attorneys from which to choose legal representation. Danois, however, offers distinctive professional services, which complement those services already provided by an attorney. Believing that knowledge is power, she educates her clients about the process of divorce, to set the stage for what they can expect as they journey down this unfamiliar path and prepare themselves for the consequences of each move. What she does is divorce coaching, preparing new divorcees to function in the world as single people.

Certified by the Florida Supreme Court as a Family Law Mediator, Danois, an out-of-state attorney, consults with men and women who are struggling with family disputes relating to divorce, including alimony/spousal support, child support and time-sharing custody. Working with attorneys, clergy, marriage counselors and family therapists allows Danois to provide her clients with the best service, because she analyzes all of the issues at a high level and consults with the other members of the professional team. She also works with family law attorneys throughout Broward County, who retain her as a mediator because of her reputation and extensive experience as a trial attorney.

She has good news for couples fearing the process: "Litigation is not the only solution. By working with a mediator or divorce coach, you can learn to set aside the emotions – the hatred, shock, hurt, embarrassment and humiliation – and re-focus to resolve the underlying dispute without the need for court intervention."

Danois believes that by rationally assessing the situation in front of you and by exercising some self-determination about how you want to live the rest of your life, you and your spouse can avoid the financial burdens often associated with a litigated divorce. ✨
